

B.A.E.: Secondary Education

Academic Field: History

2002-2003

This degree, granted by the College of Education, requires forty-two (42) hours of course work in the academic field, as well as University General Studies and College of Education core requirements.

History—

- * 30 hours of HST course work: Eighteen (18) hours must be upper division (3XX-4XX); twelve hours of the HST upper Division must be completed at ASU Main; fifteen (15) hours must be in U.S. History; the remaining HST hours should include courses in other geographic and/or thematic areas, HST 300, and HST 498.

HST 300	Historical Inquiry (L/ SB, H) (junior status)
HST 498	PS: History Pro-Seminar (L) (senior status)

- * 12 hours of related fields course work: 6 hours must be upper division (3XX-4XX). The history department has a list of accepted related fields. The department requires work in any or all of these disciplines: Political Science (POS), Economics (ECN), Sociology (SOC), and Geography (GCU/GPH).

In addition to courses in the academic specialization (HST- History), students must complete two methods courses.

- * HST 480 Methods of Teaching History: Classroom Resources
- * HST 481 Methods of Teaching History: Community Resources

Notes

A minimum GPA of 2.5 in history courses is required for admission to student teaching and for graduation.

Students should complete HST 300 before enrolling in HST 480, HST 481, and HST 498.

HST 480 and HST 481 may not be counted as part of the 42-semester hours requirement for the academic specialization.

A. Geographic Areas- Asia, Europe, Latin America, or the United States.

B. Thematic Areas- Culture and Thought, Empire and Nation, Ethnicity and Identity, Pre-Modern World, Women and Society, War and Revolution, and Politics and International Relations.

Lists of Thematic and approved Related Fields courses are available at the department of History Advising office- Social Sciences #222, or web page: www.asu.edu/clas/history.