Baccalaureate Degree Requirements

Semester Hours Required

A minimum of 120 semester hours and 45 upper-division semester hours (300 and 400 level courses) are required for a bachelor's degree.

First Year Composition Requirement

Students must demonstrate reasonable proficiency in written English by achieving a grade of "C" or better in both ENG 101 and 102 or in ENG 105 or their equivalents. Should a student receive a grade lower than "C" in any of the courses, it must be repeated until the specified proficiency is demonstrated.

General Studies Requirements

All undergraduate students in the College of Public Programs are required to complete the university General Studies requirements in order to be eligible for graduation in any of the undergraduate curricula offered by the college. Many general studies requirements may simultaneously fulfill college and major requirements (see shaded regions).

College Requirements

In addition to the university General Studies requirement, the College of Public Programs requires the following:

Communication Requirement

All undergraduate majors are required to take one of the following courses:

- COM 100 Intro. to Human Com. (SB)
- COM 225 Public Speaking (L)
- COM 230 Small Group Com. (SB)
- COM 241 Intro. to Oral Interpretation (HU)
- COM 259 Com. in Business & the Professions

These courses present an overview of human communication and help the student to develop oral presentation skills and competence. The course may be included within the university General Studies requirements and major requirements where appropriate.

Computer Science Requirement

A computer science course is required for all undergraduate majors in the College of Public Programs. Any CS course from the university General Studies list that involves the use of computer application skills is acceptable. It may be included within the Mathematical Studies requirement where appropriate. Please see your academic advisor for a complete list of acceptable courses. Below is a list of commonly taken courses:

- CSE 180 Computer Literacy
- CIS 200 Computers in Business
- EDT 321 Computer Literacy
- EDT 323 Computer Applications

Writing Competency Requirement

In addition to ENG 101 and 102 First-Year Composition or their equivalents, one of the following courses in advanced written expository composition is required of all undergraduate majors:

- BUS 301 Fundamentals of Mgmt. Com.
- ENG 215 Strategies of Academic Writing
- ENG 216 Persuasive Writing
- ENG 217 Writing Reflective Essays
- ENG 218 Writing about Literature
- ENG 301 Writing for the Professions
- JMC 201 Journalism Newswriting
- JMC 202 Radio-TV Writing

This course will be counted as fulfilling the university General Studies literacy and critical inquiry (L) requirement.

Limitation on Physical Education

Activity Hours

No more than eight hours of physical education activity courses may be counted within the minimum 120 hours required for graduation.

Pass/Fail Option

The College of Public Programs does not offer any courses for pass/fail credit. Courses completed for pass/fail credit outside the College of Public Programs may count only as elective credit in meeting degree requirements.

Bachelor of Science in American Indian Studies

The curriculum for the Bachelor of Science degree in American Indian Studies provides students with the unique opportunities to evaluate Native people's issues within a domestic and international context. The AIS courses provide intellectual and practical knowledge pertaining to American Indian culture, history, law, literature, language, art, and government. The major consists of 42 semester hours. 24 are required core courses and the remaining 18 elective credit hours must be taken from AIS's two areas of emphasis: (1) Legal Policy, Community, and Economic Development and (2) Arts, Languages, and Cultures.

Emphasis Areas
