

ASU COLLEGE of PUBLIC PROGRAMS

Social Welfare BIS Concentration 2004-2005

The Concentration in Social Welfare prepares students for social welfare work and other professional careers where a fundamental knowledge of human relations is required. The Concentration enhances and broadens the ability of students to analyze complex family, individual, and societal problems in the context of societal values, cultural diversity, and other social and economic variables. The Concentration also contributes to students' understanding of society and social behavior, encourages critical thinking, and helps develop communication skills.

Students should:

- ❑ Meet with a Social Welfare Advisor prior to registration
 - ➔ School of Social Work Advising Office Laura.Orr@asu.edu or (480) 965-6081
