

BIS: CONCENTRATION: EDUCATION

18 hours

Core 9 hours of required course work

EDP 310	Educational Psychology
SPF 301	Culture and Schooling
MCE 446	Understanding the Culturally Diverse Child

Areas of Study Select 9 hours from one area of study

Diversity in Education 9 hours

Select three from the following:

BLE 335	Language Diversity in Classrooms
BLE 400	Principles of Instruction in Language Minority Education
BLE 409	Methods in Language-Sensitive Content Teaching
CED 111	Exploration of Education
IED 401	Navajo Language and Culture I
IED 403	Navajo Language and Culture II
IED 410	History of American Indian Education
IED 422	Methods of Teaching Indian Students
IED 430	Issues in Language and Literacy of Indigenous Peoples
IED 433	Counseling the Indian Student
IED 444	Role of Governments in Native Education Policy & Administration
IED 460	Yaqui History and Culture
SPE 311	Orientation to the Education of Exceptional Children

Educational Psychology 9 hours

Select one from the following:

EDP 303	Human Development
EDP 313	Childhood and Adolescence

Select two from the following:

ECD 310	Educational Environment: Infants / Toddlers
ECD 314	The Developing Child
EDP 310	Educational Psychology (6 hours possible)

Educational Technology 9 hours

Select three from the following:

EDT 321	Computer Literacy
EDT 323	Computer Applications
EDT 394	Special Topics
EDT 455	Authoring Tools
EDT 494	Special Topics

A BIS concentration in Education provides students with a broad base curriculum, offering courses in Educational Psychology, Educational Technology, or Diversity. A concentration in Education will equip students with knowledge of current issues, future challenges, and applicable theories with respect to education.