 Advisor: Lois Laynor Goldblatt

The concentration in Family and Human Development exposes students to the basic coursework and issues in the discipline and enhances students' understanding of the issues faced by families and children. The FAS/CDE concentration works very well for those students who combine it with psychology, sociology, business, communication, and justice studies.

Upper Division Hours Required			15
Total Hours Required			18
Requirements: 18 hours of coursework          CDE 232 is strongly suggested as a prerequisite for any other FAS/CDE courses.          "C" minimum grade is required for all courses in the Family and Human Development area of concentration.  A minimum of six upper division hours in the concentration must be taken in residence at ASU Main.
