Students pursuing a BFA Art (Art Education) have two advisors: one in the College of Fine Arts to advise on general studies and degree requirements, the other in the College of Education to advise on courses required for teacher certification.

The School of Art Undergraduate Advising Office is located in room 151 of the Art Building. The College of Education advising is located in the Office of Student Services, Payne Hall L1-13. The above checklist is for planning. Always check the Undergraduate Catalog for requirements. The official checklist is the one in ART 151.
