

ASU-East: East College

BIS Area of Concentration Check Sheet: Human Nutrition

Catalog Year(s): 2003 - 2006

Advising Location and Phone Number: HSC 1386, (480) 727-1728

The human nutrition concentration provides a sound foundation in the basic sciences and nutrition, but no food service courses are required. This program would be useful to students seeking further education in allied health or medical fields.

| Course Number | Course Title | Lower Division | Upper Division | Course Pre-requisites | GS Designation (s) |
|--|-------------------------------------|----------------|----------------|--------------------------|--------------------|
| NTR 241* | Human Nutrition | 3 | | Y | |
| NTR 341  | Intro to Planning Therapeutic Diets | | 3 | Y | |
| NTR 340  | Applications in Human Nutrition | | 3 | Y | |
| NTR 440  | Advanced Human Nutrition I | | 3 | Y | |
| NTR 441  | Advanced Human Nutrition II | | 3 | Y | |
| NTR 444  | Medical Nutrition Therapy | | 3 | Y | |
| Upper Division Hours Required | | | 15 | | |
| Total Hours Required | | | 18 | | |
| * Offered at ASU Main and East campuses.  Instructor or advisor permission required.  See ASU General Catalog for course prerequisites. | | | | | |
| Eligibility: A major other than Nutrition, Dietetics, or Food and Nutrition Management. | | | | | |