

Baccalaureate Degree Requirements

Semester Hours Required

A minimum of 120 semester hours and 45 upper-division semester hours (300 and 400 level courses) are required for a bachelor's degree.

First Year Composition Requirement

Students must demonstrate reasonable proficiency in written English by achieving a grade of "C" or better in both ENG 101 and 102 or in ENG 105 or their equivalents. Should a student receive a grade lower than "C" in any of the courses, it must be repeated until the specified proficiency is demonstrated.

General Studies Requirements

All undergraduate students in the College of Public Programs are required to complete the university General Studies requirements in order to be eligible for graduation in any of the undergraduate curricula offered by the college. Many general studies requirements may simultaneously fulfill college and major requirements.

College Requirements

In addition to the university General Studies requirement, the College of Public Programs requires the following:

Communication Requirement

All undergraduate majors are required to take one of the following courses:

- COM 100 Intro. To Human Com. (SB)
- COM 225 Public Speaking (L)
- COM 230 Small Group Com. (SB)
- COM 241 Intro. to Oral Interpretation (HU)
- COM 259 Com. in Business & the Professions

These courses present an overview of human communication and help the student to develop oral presentation skills and competence. The course may be included within the university General Studies requirements and major requirements where appropriate.

Computer Science Requirement

A computer science course is required for all undergraduate majors in the College of Public Programs. Any CS course from the university General Studies list that involves the use of computer application skills is acceptable. It may be included within the Mathematical Studies requirement where appropriate. Please see your academic advisor for a complete list of acceptable courses. Below is a list of commonly taken courses:

- CSE 180 Computer Literacy
- CIS 200 Computers in Business
- EDT 321 Computer Literacy
- EDT 323 Computer Applications

Writing Competency Requirement

In addition to ENG 101 and 102 First-Year Composition or their equivalents, one of the following courses in advanced written expository composition is required of all undergraduate majors:

- ENG 215 Strategies of Academic Writing
- ENG 216 Persuasive Writing
- ENG 217 Writing Reflective Essays
- ENG 218 Writing about Literature
- ENG 301 Writing for the Professions
- JMC 201 Journalism News writing
- JMC 202 Radio-TV Writing

This course will be counted as fulfilling the university General Studies literacy and critical inquiry (L) requirement.

Limitation on Physical Education Activity Hours

No more than eight hours of physical education activity courses may be counted within the minimum 120 hours required for graduation.

Pass/Fail Option

The College of Public Programs does not offer any courses for pass/fail credit. Courses completed for pass/fail credit outside the College of Public Programs may count only as elective credit in meeting degree requirements.

The School of Community Resources & Development Bachelor of Science Recreation (Management)

The Bachelor of Science in Recreation (Management) degree program in the School of Community Resources & Development focuses on leisure program delivery to a variety of populations and the management of parks and protected areas. By graduation, the student will be equipped with vital academic and professional tools: a complete understanding of the profession through both theoretical and applied perspectives and the practical and academic experience to excel in both professional arenas and academia.

Admission to Professional Status

Upon admission to the university, parks & recreation management students are classified as pre-professional status. The School of Community Resources & Development requires a minimum of 56 semester hours with a minimum of 2.50 cumulative GPA before being officially admitted with professional status. Upper division professional courses within the parks & recreation management program cannot be taken until professional status is attained. Transfer students who have completed 56 semester hours or more at another institution must remove any scholastic deficiencies before being admitted with professional status.

Students may achieve professional status by completing a minimum of 56 semester hours including the following:

- ENG 101 and 102 or equivalent (grade of "C" or better)
- College of Public Programs writing competence requirement
- University math requirement: MAT 142 or higher
- College of Public Programs computer requirement

- College of Public Programs communication requirement
- PRM 120 Leisure and the Quality of Life ("C" or better)
