

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies
Leadership and Ethics Concentration
Arizona State University – College of Public Programs
School of Public Affairs

The Leadership and Ethics Concentration requires six (6) courses for a total of 18 credits. For advice on the certificate program, please contact the School of Public Affairs: phone: (602) 496-0450; email: spa@asu.edu.

Leadership and Ethics Concentration Course Requirements
Required Courses (4 courses, 12 credits) Indicate below the courses taken to complete certificate. "C" minimum required.
Course Prefix/Number	Course Title	Semester Hours	Grade	Semester/Year Taken
M PAF 494	Building Leadership Skills	3
M PHI 394	Ethics and Justice	3
M PAF 494	Leadership and Change	3
M PAF 494	Leadership Capstone	3
Leadership and Ethics Concentration Course Electives
Elective Courses (2 courses, 6 credits) Choose two of the approved electives from below. Please note that some courses may require prerequisites or may be for majors only . Other courses may be substituted with approval from School of Public Affairs.
Course Prefix/Number	Course Title	Semester Hours	Grade	Semester/Year Taken

Course	Title	Course	Title
M BUS/ HON 497	Honors Colloquium: Leadership through Service	M PAF 494	Leadership, Ethics & Sports
M COM 430	Leadership Group Communication	M PAF 494	Leadership & Communication
M MGT 300	Organizational Management/Leadership	M POS 314	The American Presidency
M PAF 420	Public Leadership	M REC 430	Managing Nonprofit Organizations
M PAF 460	Public Service Ethics	M SPF 498	Educational Leadership & Diversity in Sports