

Arizona State University
School of Nutrition and Health Promotion
Bachelor of Applied Science Degree
Food Service Management Concentration

The B.A.S. degree with a concentration in Food Service Management is designed to complement and enhance the educational preparation of students holding an A.A.S. degree. The concentration is particularly designed for students holding an A.A.S. degree in culinary or hospitality science. The degree prepares students for careers in food production, service, management, and marketing. With additional education and/or professional training, students may also become credentialed as certified dietary managers, school food service and nutrition specialists, or registered sanitarians.

Admission to the B.A.S. degree program is restricted to students holding an A.A.S. degree from a regionally accredited U.S. postsecondary educational institution. A GPA of 2.00 or higher is required for all resident applicants and a 2.50 is required for nonresident applicants. The B.A.S. degree consists of 60 semester hours which must include a minimum 45 credits of upper-division (300 level and above) courses. A total of 120 semester hours is required for graduation.
