PURPOSE

The Katherine K. Herberger College of Fine Arts at ASU offers preprofessional and professional education in the arts disciplines and opportunities for nonmajors to become culturally literate through participation and involvement in the creative and performing arts.

At the graduate level, the college provides students the opportunity to participate with faculty mentors in research, performance and performance practices, and other creative activities.

As the largest and most diverse fine arts academic unit in the Southwest, and one of the largest in North America, the college has an implicit responsibility to maintain quality and leadership in all aspects of its activities. Through its programs in art, dance, music, and theatre, the college reflects a wide range of challenges facing the artist and scholar in the 21st century.

ORGANIZATION

The college houses the School of Art; the Department of Dance; the School of Music; the Department of Theatre; the ASU Art Museum; and the Institute for Studies in the Arts, which includes the Arts, Media, and Engineering program. An average of 2,000 students per semester enroll as majors in various degree programs offered through these units. Approximately one third of these are graduate students.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Faculty in the School of Art, Department of Dance, School of Music, and Department of Theatre offer both research and professional degrees through the Division of Graduate Studies: the MA, Master of Fine Arts, Master of Music, Doctor of Musical Arts, and PhD degrees. A full range of majors and concentrations is available.

See the “Katherine K. Herberger College of Fine Arts Graduate Degrees and Majors” table, page 205.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission requirements vary according to degree programs. However, applicants must first meet all admission requirements of the Division of Graduate Studies. Most programs require a bachelor’s degree with a major in the selected area; many of them also require an audition. See the specific degree program for pertinent admission requirements.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Together with faculty, visiting scholars, and artists-in-residence, graduate students in all fields of the college participate in dynamic, innovative programs. The creative energy that infuses the visual and performing arts finds expression in research and study.

The School of Art offers scholarly programs in the history, theory, and teaching of art, and highly respected studio programs in ceramics, digital technology media, drawing/painting, fibers, intermedia, metals, photography, printmaking, sculpture, and wood. The accomplished faculty and visiting artists/scholars create an excellent learning environment for innovation and collaboration. Gallery 100, the Harry Wood and Northlight Galleries, studios and workshops, and three computer and/or video labs support these programs.

In addition, the School of Art has three traveling research fellowships that allow students to study or conduct research abroad. The Nathan Cummings Travel Fellowship is for MFA students, and the Anthony Gully Travel Fellowship and the Rabiner Memorial Fellowship are for graduate History and Theory of Art students.

Recognized as one of the top programs in the country, the Department of Dance emphasizes the choreography, performance, and theory of modern dance. Nationally prominent faculty and visiting artists create repertory for dance majors and for the Dance Arizona Repertory Theatre (DART), a student touring outreach company. An ambitious performance program offers to the public several concerts each year with additional works created and performed by graduate and undergraduate students. Students work closely with major artists and companies who visit campus annually, and with researchers in the areas of dance education, dance in relation to technology, dance music composition, laban movement analysis, somatics, and sound and video production. ASU students and faculty have consistently taken top honors at the regional and national festivals of the American College Dance Festival Association.

The Arts, Media, and Engineering (AME) program evolved out of the Institute for Studies in the Arts (ISA), an interdisciplinary research center in the Herberger College of Fine Arts created in 1990. The ISA continues to incorporate guest artists and scientists and presentations of AME research groups in its annual season of events, including performances, presentations, screenings, workshops, and residencies.

AME focuses on the integrated, parallel development of digital media technologies and digital media content. AME faculty and graduate students combine understanding of computation and computational modeling with the ability to apply this understanding at every level of the digital media communication process—from the development of tools and the creation of content, to analysis of the social implications of the digital revolution. Students benefit from a dynamic educational experience that transcends traditional departmental or disciplinary modes. AME’s modular and flexible curriculum allows students to customize their degree paths to reflect research interests.

Faculty in the School of Music include a wide range of performers, teachers, conductors, composers, and scholars, whose knowledge and guidance support the training of students in the Doctor of Musical Arts and master’s degree programs. Individuals who hold graduate degrees from ASU’s School of Music hold prestigious performing and university teaching positions throughout the nation. The graduate programs are comprehensive and provide for wide and diverse opportunities in performance, course work, and research.

The Department of Theatre offers innovative programs across a variety of theatrical and performance-oriented disciplines. The new PhD in theatre and performance of the Americas curriculum, the first of its kind in the country, trains scholars to examine the histories, theories, and practices associated with cultural performance, from a hemispheric perspective. The department’s nationally and internationally acclaimed theatre for youth program offers study at both the MFA and PhD levels.

Within the MFA in Theatre, four concentrations are available: directing, performance, performance design, and theatre for youth. The interdisciplinary digital media concentration is also offered in collaboration with the Arts, Media, and Engineering program. The MFA programs are designed to train creative artists of the future to work across and between theatrical disciplines. The programs provide students with the skills needed to achieve their fullest potential as theatre artists. MFA students create new work and original interpretations that are engaged with, and responsive to, diverse communities.

The concentration in performance challenges the student to develop new works, reinvigorate the classics, and to explore new theatrical forms and the changing relationship between performance and technology. The concentration in directing focuses on the collaborative process necessary for new work development, emphasizing a mentor-student approach toward developing skills, craft, and attitude to be an outstanding professional director. Students in the performance design concentration work collaboratively in the... design studio and all aspects of design and technology for stage productions. Internship opportunities are available.

The Department of Theatre’s theatre for youth program provides comprehensive graduate training. Students are offered acting, directing, and other production opportunities for mainstage, studio, touring shows, and community-based performance, as well as research and teaching opportunities on and off campus. The program has developed Hayden Library’s Child Drama Collection, which includes rare books, plays, memorabilia, and personal and national association archives. It is the most complete and comprehensive child drama collection in the English-speaking world.

The MFA in Creative Writing encourages graduate students to work closely with writers of drama, fiction, and poetry, and with directors and producers from the Departments of English and Theatre. This interdisciplinary program, involving the artistic, research, and teaching interests of faculty in these departments, offers students a unique opportunity to tailor a course of study to fit individual needs, talents, and goals.

COLLEGE FACILITIES

The arts programs are housed in the following buildings: Art Building; Dixie Gammage Hall; Physical Education Building East; Gammage Center for the Performing Arts; the Brickyard; Matthews Center; Matthews Hall; the J. Russell and Bonita Nelson Fine Arts Center, which includes the ASU Art Museum; the 496-seat Paul V. Galvin Playhouse; six theatre studios; a 7,000-square-foot Experimental Dance Lab; a dance studio theatre; a video lab; the Digital Arts Ranch; and the Computing Commons Gallery. The Music Building and expansion wing house four performance halls ranging in size from the 125-seat Recital Hall to the 500-seat Music Theatre and the 350-seat Katzin Concert Hall, which is used primarily for solo and chamber music recitals. The Katzin Concert Hall contains a nine-foot Hamburg Concert Steinway piano. The new 175-seat Organ Hall was designed to house the Paul Fritts Tracker Organ, an instrument reflecting the aesthetics and style of North German organ building in the 17th century. The Department of Theatre also stages productions in the renovated Lyceum Theatre and Prism Theatre. Many of these facilities are equipped with studios and laboratories, where needed.

The ASU Art Museum’s collections are housed in a large complex of galleries and art study rooms in two locations: the Nelson Fine Arts Center and the second floor of the Matthews Center. The Oliver B. James Collection of American Art ranges from the early 18th century to the contemporary and includes major works by Stuart, Ryder, Homer, and the Ash Can School painters. Master works by great printmakers such as Durer, Rembrandt, Whistler, and Hogarth are often featured in special exhibitions selected from the university’s extensive print collection.

The gallery devoted to Latin American art features folk art as well as paintings by celebrated 20th-century artists Rivera, Siqueiros, and Tamayo. The museum also displays many fine examples of 19th- and 20th-century crafts, paintings, and sculpture.

The contemporary art holdings include works by Vernon Fisher, Leon Golub, Sue Coe, Luis Jimenez, and Robert Colescott. Exhibitions curated by the museum emphasize contemporary art and new media, crafts, and Mexican art.

All units have developed computer facilities for graduate student training. Also refer to “Computing Facilities and Services,” page 33.

ADVISING

Advising is handled as a decentralized activity within the college. To offer personalized attention, each academic unit establishes its own graduate advising procedures. Students are encouraged to make appointments through the central office of their major discipline.

ACCREDITATION

While all of the arts programs in the college meet or exceed standards established by various arts accrediting agencies, the School of Music holds formal membership in the National Association of Schools of Music.

The PhD degree in Curriculum and Instruction is offered with a concentration in art education through the College of Education. The PhD degree in History and Theory of Art is offered in collaboration with the University of Arizona.
MASTER OF ARTS

Art Education

Admission. An applicant must have a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university with a major of not less than 45 semester hours of art, including 12 hours of art history and six hours of art education. Additional hours may be required by the school.

An applicant must have a GPA of at least 3.00 in undergraduate course work during the junior and senior years. Applicants who do not meet these requirements must submit scores from the Miller Analogies Test or the Graduate Record Examination. Applicants should submit a formal art education research paper for review.

Program of Study. The degree program requires a minimum of 30 semester hours of credit in art education, including 18 hours of core courses, six hours of special topics on research related to integrating the teaching of studio art, art history, and criticism or aesthetics, and six hours of research and thesis.

To meet the core requirements, students must take the following core courses:

- ARE 510 Visual Culture Research .................................................. 3
- ARE 520 Issues in Teaching Inquiry in Art .............................. 3
- ARE 525 Research on Art Instruction ............................................ 3
- ARE 530 Issues in Teaching Studio Art ........................................... 3
- ARE 535 Research on Teaching Studio Art ................................. 3
- ARE 540 Teaching Art in Cultural Contexts ................................. 3

Before the end of the first semester of course work (six or more semester hours), a program of study must be submitted to the Division of Graduate Studies. Additional program requirements are indicated in the MA in Art Education Guidelines.

Qualifying Research Paper. A qualifying research paper must be submitted at the end of the semester in which the student completes the first 15 hours of course work. This paper must be judged satisfactory by the art education faculty before the start of the following semester, or the student is put on probation. During the semester following the qualifying research paper review, the student on probation may not enroll in more than nine semester hours of course work (these may not be thesis hours). To continue in the program, the student must submit a satisfactory research paper before the end of that semester.

Thesis Requirements. A written thesis is required.

Final Examination. A final oral examination in defense of the thesis is required.

MASTER OF FINE ARTS

Art

The Master of Fine Arts degree in Art requires a minimum of 60 semester hours of graduate work beyond the bachelor’s degree. The objective of this degree is to provide advanced study in one or more of the following concentrations: ceramics, digital media, drawing, fibers, intermedia, metals, painting, photographic studies, photography, printmaking, sculpture, or wood.

Admission. A bachelor’s degree from a college or university recognized by ASU is required. All students applying for the MFA degree must submit to the graduate coordinator a portfolio of 20 slides of their work (or a video or other format acceptable to the area of specialization) with a return envelope and postage. Applicants for the digital technology concentration program must also include a statement and evidence of work demonstrating digital technology skills beyond end user applications, as well as an art and digital technology résumé. Three letters of recommendation and a statement of intent pertaining to the student’s educational objectives are also required. Because each area of specialization may have unique requirements, students are advised to contact the School of Art for additional information.

Selection Procedures. Faculty review committees, from concentration areas, appointed by the Graduate Studio Committee make the recommendations for admission. All aspects of the application are evaluated with the purpose of selecting for the available openings those students who have the most reasonable prospect for success in the proposed programs of study. For the digital technology MFA, all admissions and financial aid decisions must be approved by both the School of Art and Arts Media and Engineering. The application deadline is January 15 for the following fall semester. Each student whose application is complete by the deadline date should be advised of admission status within six weeks of the deadline.

Review Sequence
All students are reviewed after completing 15 semester hours of graduate studio work. A progress review may be called at any time during the course of the graduate program. Following the review (after 15 semester hours), the student must form a supervisory committee to direct the program through the completion of the MFA exhibition and final oral examination. For more information, a student should request a copy of the MFA Guidelines from the School of Art.

Program of Study. A minimum of 60 to 63 semester hours of graduate credit subject to committee approval is required, including

1. from 27 to 32 graduate studio semester hours in the major area(s) of concentration (with the exception of digital media where 18 semester hours are ART classes and 18 semester hours are AME classes);
2. six semester hours of graduate-level art history and three semester hours of other interdisciplinary graduate credit to supplement MFA work (nonstudio courses), except for digital technology, which requires six semester hours of ARS;
3. nine semester hours of graduate-level course work outside of the major area of concentration, of which three semester hours must begin with the ART prefix and the remaining six semester hours may be outside the School of Art (except for digital technology, which requires nine semester hours of electives in the School of Art and Arts Media and Engineering); and
4. 10 to 15 hours of ART 680 Practicum, resulting in an MFA exhibition (except for digital technology, where six hours will be ART 680 and six hours will be AME 593).

Credit Before Admission. Subject to the recommendation of the review committee, students with a completed MA degree in Studio Art may have up to 24 hours (exclusive of thesis or project) applied to the MFA program. In other cases, a maximum of 12 semester hours of transfer credit may be applied to the degree program. However, only nine hours of nondegree graduate credit taken at ASU or another institution before admission to ASU may be used to fulfill degree requirements (see “College of Law Credit,” page 67).

Foreign Language Requirements. None.

Final Examination. An oral defense of the MFA exhibition (ART 680) is required.

Time Limit. The total program and all requirements for the degree, including transferred course work, must be completed within seven calendar years.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY
Faculty in the School of Art offer programs leading to doctoral degrees in art education and art history. Additional information about graduate programs and forms for graduate study are available online at www.asu.edu/graduate or from Graduate Admissions.

ART EDUCATION

PhD in Curriculum and Instruction
A PhD degree in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in art education is available through the College of Education. For more information, see “Division of Curriculum and Instruction,” page 146.

Admissions. In addition to meeting the Division of Graduate Studies admission requirements, each applicant must provide the following: a letter of intent that includes career goals and reasons for seeking the interdisciplinary PhD in Curriculum and Instruction; GRE scores; a sample of scholarly written work; and three letters of recommendation. One year of full-time K–12 teaching experience is strongly recommended.

Program of Study. The degree requires 90 to 93 semester hours beyond the bachelor’s degree. Course work is divided into four core areas: core requirements, professional focus, cognate study, and dissertation/individual research. A foreign language is not required.

Program Committee. A chair and at least two other members oversee early advising and the preparation of the initial program of study. A five-member committee is required for the administration and evaluation of the comprehensive examination. Three of these members must be from the interdisciplinary committee, two of whom must have expertise in the student’s area of concentration.

Dissertation Committee. After passing the comprehensive examination, a dissertation committee is formed with the approval of the dean of graduate studies. Members of the program committee may continue to serve as members of the dissertation committee or the members of the committee may change. The dissertation committee chair must be a faculty member designated eligible to serve in this capacity by the interdisciplinary committee and the dean of graduate studies.

HISTORY AND THEORY OF ART

PhD in History and Theory of Art
The Arizona PhD in the History and Theory of Art is a collaborative program between Arizona State University and the University of Arizona, directed by a PhD steering and academic committee with members from both universities. The emphasis is on interdisciplinary methodologies and electronic technologies to prepare students for museum and teaching careers. See “Doctor of Philosophy,” page 69, for general requirements.

Admissions. Applicants must submit an application form, fee, GRE scores, official transcripts, and other materials to the Division of Graduate Studies Admissions Office. The following materials must be sent to the graduate advisor for art history: a statement of intent regarding graduate study, a scholarly research paper, requests for assistantships and tuition waivers, and three academic letters of recommendation (to be sent directly by referees). The postmark deadline is January 15 for complete admission applications for enrollment in the following fall semester.

Students with a BA fulfilling the requirements for acceptance into the MA program may seek admission directly into the PhD program. Other applicants may hold an MA in Art History or another discipline approved by the PhD steering committee. Students lacking in sufficient background in art history are required to make up these credits before courses may be counted toward the PhD.

Program of Study. The PhD requires 54 semester hours beyond the MA, including six semester hours of PhD core classes, 12 semester hours in the major area of emphasis, six semester hours in the minor area, six semester hours in interdisciplinary courses outside of art history, and a written dissertation (24 semester hours). Students need to complete the requirements for the MA in Art with a concentration in art history before advancing to the PhD program.

Foreign Language. A reading knowledge of at least two foreign languages is required. A third language may be necessary, depending on the field of study.

PhD Committee. A three- to five-member comprehensive examination and dissertation committee directs the student’s subsequent work. The committee consists of two art history faculty members in the student’s major area and one in the minor area or related discipline. One member must be from the University of Arizona.

Comprehensive Examination. A written examination is required upon completion of course work. The subsequent oral examination, within six months of passing the written examination, addresses the dissertation proposal.

Admission to Candidacy. A student advances to candidacy upon completion of the written and oral examinations.

MASTER OF FINE ARTS

The MFA degree in Dance is a 60-semester-hour program. The program is designed to provide opportunities for the student to continue to develop in the areas of dance technique, choreography, performance and production; to gain further understanding of the interrelationships between dance and philosophy, history, music, art, theatre, education, somatics, science, critical theory, and cultural studies; and to begin charting future directions through technology, media opportunities, and community partnerships.

Admission. All students must apply to the MFA program in Dance through the Division of Graduate Studies. A bachelor’s degree with a major in Dance or its equivalent is required. Applicants must submit an application form, fee, transcripts, and other materials to the Division of Graduate Studies Admissions office. An application packet and list of guidelines are available online at www.asu.edu/graduate/admissions. They may also be obtained from Graduate Admissions by calling 480/965-6113 or by sending e-mail to gradadmiss@asu.edu. The GRE examination is not required for admission into this program. The TOEFL exam is required for international students.

Three letters of reference, a current résumé, and a statement of intent must be filed with the Department of Dance to assess the qualifications of each candidate. In addition to submitting this material, the candidate must participate in a technique audition in modern dance and ballet and present a self-choreographed solo dance work approximately five minutes in length. The technique audition and solo work may be submitted on videotape (VHS format, standard play [SP] speed) or CD-ROM (Macintosh format); however, auditioning in person is preferred. Each candidate must also submit a videotape of a group work choreographed by the applicant within the last three years and/or a portfolio of relevant work in a chosen area(s) of expertise. Applicants for admission also participate in an interview with the faculty.

Program of Study. A total of 60 semester hours of graduate credit is required, including

1. 30 to 37 semester hours in foundational studio/theory course work (in the areas of technique and movement arts, choreography and art-making practices, interactive arts, education and community partnerships, theory, and professional preparation);
2. eight hours of individual MFA project (choreography, performance, or other approved project);
3. 15 to 30 semester hours of electives in chosen area(s) of study.

In consultation with the graduate director, the graduate policy committee, and the student’s supervisory committee, a program of study may be tailored to meet specific interests, needs, and abilities.

Credit Before Admission. Upon approval of the supervisory committee, a maximum of 24 semester hours of graduate credit completed before admission may be applied to the program if these courses were part of a completed master’s degree in Dance. All course work appearing on the program of study must meet the seven-year time limit requirement.

Foreign Language Requirements. None.

MFA Project. The MFA project serves as the capstone experience in the graduate dance curriculum. Each candidate submits a prospectus to his or her supervisory committee outlining the nature of the MFA project. This project may be choreography and/or performance, or projects designed to incorporate technology or other approved research components. The department welcomes projects in the areas of dance science and somatics, multimedia, community education and professional outreach, cultural studies, and history whose approaches are interdisciplinary in nature. Required supporting documentation of the project must be written and bound and meet format approval from both the student’s supervisory committee and the Division of Graduate Studies.

Interdisciplinary Digital Media and Performance Concentration. Students interested in this MFA in Dance collaborative program should contact the graduate secretary in the Department of Dance.

Final Examination. An oral defense of the MFA project is required.

MASTER OF MUSIC

The faculty in the School of Music offer a graduate program leading to the professional MM degree. Three majors are available: Composition, Music Education, and Performance. For information about a new major in Music Therapy, contact the school. Students majoring in composition may pursue a traditional composition curriculum or choose a concentration in interdisciplinary digital media and performance. For the Music Education major, concentrations are available in:

1. choral music,
2. general music,
3. instrumental music, and
4. jazz studies.

Performance majors may focus their education in the following areas of concentration:

1. interdisciplinary digital media and performance,
2. music theatre/opera musical direction,
3. music theatre/opera performance,
4. performance,
5. performance pedagogy, and
6. piano accompanying.

Prerequisites. A Bachelor of Music degree or its equivalent from an accredited institution is required for admission to the MM program.
Admission. Admission to all concentrations under the major in Performance is dependent on a successful audition, either in person or by taped performance.

For admission to the major in Composition, the applicant must submit three original works showing technical facility in composition, letters of recommendation from two qualified persons in the field, and a one- to two-page personal statement of the applicant’s professional goals.

For admission to the MM degree in Music Education, the applicant must have completed all requirements for music teacher certification. Postbaccalaureate certification is available and may be completed concurrently with master’s degree work. Letters of recommendation from three qualified persons in the field are also required. For the jazz studies concentration, a video or audio tape of a recent jazz performance (solo or ensemble) by the applicant must be submitted, and a video or audio tape of a jazz ensemble directed by the applicant should also be submitted if available.

Students majoring in Performance with a concentration in performance (voice) and performance pedagogy (voice) are required to take a diction examination in French, German, and Italian during registration week of their first semester. Students who do not pass this examination are required to take the appropriate semester(s) of MUP 250.

For admission to the concentration in performance pedagogy (piano), a minimum of one semester of prior piano pedagogy study that includes significant intern teaching experience is required. In addition, the student must demonstrate evidence of teaching ability, either in person or by videotape.

Program of Study. The student must complete a minimum of 32 semester hours of graduate courses, of which at least one-third must be in the area of concentration.

Foreign Language Requirements. Vocal performance and vocal performance pedagogy require a total of 16 semester hours of college-level credit in more than one language chosen from French, German, or Italian. The concentration in piano accompanying requires two semesters of college-level study in French, German, or Italian and two semesters of diction (or the equivalent) in the remaining languages in that group. These requirements may be fulfilled in whole or in part through language instruction in secondary and/or undergraduate school or by other means. These language requirements are not part of the 32-hour program of study. However, hours toward the requirements may be taken concurrently with the program of study if a deficiency exists.

Final Examination. A final examination (written, oral, or both) is required. An oral examination in defense of the thesis is required for the major in composition.

DOCTOR OF MUSICAL ARTS

The Doctor of Musical Arts (DMA) is a professional degree program designed for students desiring high levels of performance, academic proficiency, and preparation for teaching positions at the university level. The major is Music with four concentrations: conducting, music composition, music education, and performance (instrumental, keyboard, piano accompanying, piano pedagogy, voice).

Admission. Students seeking admission normally hold the Master of Music degree. Applicants with other degrees are considered if they have received graduate training similar to that normally expected in a Master of Music degree program. The application for admission must be accompanied by an applicant’s statement relating to goals, preparation, and educational background. The applicant must submit scores for the GRE (quantitative, verbal, and analytical) or the MAT. Three letters of recommendation are required. Applicants must perform a satisfactory audition or submit a tape recording of performances or compositions as appropriate to the concentration. The deadline is February 15 for teaching assistantship applications.

Supervisory Committee. When the program of study is filed, the supervisory committee is appointed by the dean of graduate studies upon recommendation of the associate director for graduate studies of the School of Music. The committee consists of five members; at least three should be from the major field.

Program of Study. A total of 90 semester hours beyond the bachelor’s degree is required. Only 36 hours from a master’s degree or other postgraduate work will be counted toward the 90 hour requirement.

Continuous Enrollment. Once admitted to a DMA degree program, the student is expected to be enrolled continuously, excluding summer sessions, until all requirements for the degree have been fulfilled. This requirement applies to students admitted fall 1994 and thereafter. Continuous enrollment promotes steady progress toward the completion of the degree and an ongoing relationship between the student and faculty offering the program. If a program of study must be interrupted for one or more semesters, the student may apply for leave status, not to exceed one calendar year. A student on leave is not required to pay fees, but is not permitted to place any demands on university faculty or use any university facilities. A student who interrupts a program without obtaining leave status may be removed automatically from the Division of Graduate Studies, under the assumption that the student has decided to discontinue the program. A student removed from the Division of Graduate Studies for this reason may reapply for admission; the application is considered along with all other new applications to the degree program.

An application for leave status, endorsed by the members of the student’s supervisory committee and the head of the academic unit, must be approved by the dean of graduate studies. This request must be filed and approved no later than the last day of registration in the semester of anticipated absence.

Residency. In general, the DMA degree student should expect to spend at least the equivalent of three academic years beyond the bachelor’s degree in the program. At least two semesters following the first year (30 to 32 semester hours) of graduate study must be spent in continuous full-time residence at ASU. After the first year (30 to 32 semester hours), at least 54 hours must be completed in residence at ASU.

Foreign Language Requirements. Competency in at least one foreign language is required for performance and music composition concentrations. Some areas of study within performance require two foreign languages.

Comprehensive Examinations. Near the completion of course work, the student must request permission to take the comprehensive examinations through the supervisory committee and the School of Music’s associate director for graduate studies. These written and oral examinations are designed to assess the student’s competency in the major and supportive fields. Failure in the comprehensive examinations is considered final unless the supervisory committee recommends, and the dean of graduate studies approves, a reexamination. A reexamination may be administered no sooner than three months and no later than one year from the date of the original examination. Only one reexamination is permitted.

Candidacy. Doctoral students should apply for admission to candidacy immediately after they have met all requirements for the degree, except the research paper or dissertation. These requirements include passing the comprehensive examinations and foreign language examination, if applicable, and meeting other requirements specified by the academic unit.

Dissertation, Research Papers, and Recitals. The music education concentrations require a dissertation of an original and creative nature. The music composition concentration requires the creation of a significant original work of music (considered to be a dissertation) and either two article-length research papers or one more substantial paper. The conducting concentration requires the completion of research paper(s)/project(s) in conjunction with performances (one of which must be a lecture-recital). The performance concentration requires at least three recitals after admission to the program and a research paper/project. All candidates must enroll for a total of 24 semester hours in research (MUP 792), solo performance (MUP 796), and dissertation (MUP 799) as appropriate to the concentration.

Final Examination. The final oral examination in defense of the dissertation or research paper is scheduled by the Division of Graduate Studies. The examination is conducted by the supervisory committee and others appointed by the dean of graduate studies. All final oral examinations must be conducted at least one week before the degree conferral date and held on the Tempe campus.

Graduation. The student is eligible for graduation when the final oral examination has been passed, Division of Graduate Studies scholarship requirements have been met, and the dissertation/research paper has been approved by the supervisory committee, the school’s associate director for graduate studies, and the dean of graduate studies. Applications for graduation should be made no later than the date specified in the Division of Graduate Studies calendar.
Maximum Time Limit. DMA candidates must complete all requirements within five years after the comprehensive exams have been passed.

POST-BACHELOR’S ARTIST DIPLOMA

The Post-Bachelor’s Artist Diploma graduate certificate program is intended for a very limited number of the most gifted performers who demonstrate strong potential for successful careers in musical performance.

Admission. Students seeking admission must hold at least a bachelor’s degree in music or an equivalent conservatory credential at the time of entrance. All applicants whose native language is not English must submit a score of at least 550 on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For preliminary screening, every applicant must submit a letter of application, official transcripts, four letters of recommendation, and an audio recording containing works representing a variety of musical styles and composers. Those applicants recommended for a full audition must perform an audition recital and be interviewed on the ASU campus.

Program of Study. The Post-Bachelor’s Artist Diploma program is a two-year course of study requiring at least two consecutive semesters of residence. A total of 32 semester hours, including four public recitals, is required. Three of the recitals must be presented on the ASU campus, and one at a venue outside of the metropolitan Phoenix area.

Course Requirements. MUP 527 (sixteen semester hours), 551 (four semester hours), and 581; performing ensembles (two semester hours) and four recitals (eight semester hours).

Related Requirements. The School of Music graduate diagnostic examinations in music theory and music history must be taken during the first semester of study. Students in voice must pass the graduate-level foreign language diction examination before completing the program. Concurrent enrollment in other degree programs during the course of study is not permitted. Transfer credits from other institutions and/or other degree programs within the ASU School of Music do not count toward the 32 required semester hours.

Public Art

Certificate Program

The Herberger College of Fine Arts offers a Graduate Certificate in Public Art. The certificate program gives students a comprehensive background in the historical roots and contemporary issues related to the field of public art. Art in public spaces, unlike art created for a museum setting, requires a thorough knowledge of materials, conservation and maintenance, site evaluation, and the importance of social context and community involvement in the process. This 18-semester-hour program is designed to prepare graduate students to manage public art collections and/or apply for public art commissions.

Students working toward a graduate degree in studio art, art history, art education, architecture, landscape design, creative writing, or environmental studies with the intention of working in the public art field benefit from the academic and experiential approach of this program. The certificate offers a professional perspective and provides a leadership role in improving artist preparedness. Students have numerous opportunities to talk to professionals in the field and learn firsthand about practical public art issues. A six-semester-hour internship with local arts agencies gives students direct experience in working with professionals in the field.

For more information, call the Office of Public Art at 480/965-0951. For eligibility and course requirements, access the Web site at herbergercollege.asu.edu/public_art/certificate.

The faculty in the Department of Theatre offer graduate programs leading to the MA, the Master of Fine Arts, and the PhD degrees in Theatre. The areas of concentration are directing, interdisciplinary digital media, performance, performance design, and theatre for youth. At the PhD level, the department offers concentrations in theatre for youth and theatre and performance of the Americas. Students may also pursue an interdisciplinary program in playwriting leading to the MFA degree in Creative Writing; see “Creative Writing,” page 76. This program is offered by the faculties in the Departments of English and Theatre.

MASTER OF ARTS

The MA degree in Theatre prepares students for continuing study beyond the master’s level. The program primarily emphasizes theoretical studies and accepts only those students intending to continue to the PhD concentration in theatre and performance of the Americas.

For general requirements, see “Master’s Degrees,” page 67.
Admission. Applicants must meet all admission requirements of the Division of Graduate Studies. In addition, the Department of Theatre requires comprehensive undergraduate preparation in theatre (at least a Theatre minor or its equivalent), acceptable scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or a current curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, and an undergraduate GPA of 3.00.

Application Deadline. The first deadline for receipt of applications and test scores is February 15. After that date, admission is subject to space availability.

Deficiencies. Deficiencies in undergraduate preparation (not to exceed 12 semester hours) may be removed while pursuing the MA degree; courses taken to remove deficiencies may not be counted toward the degree.

Program of Study. The required courses are THE 500, 504, 505, 520, 598 (College Teaching), and 791. Additional course work to complete the degree is selected by the student with the approval of the supervisory committee. Theatre courses must be completed with a grade of “B” (3.00) or higher. A thesis is required.

Foreign Language Requirements. A second language is recommended and is a requirement of the PhD concentration in theatre and performance of the Americas.

Final Examinations. Both final written and oral examinations are required of all candidates. The written examination is based on the required courses; the oral examination is a defense of the written examination and thesis.

MASTER OF FINE ARTS

The MFA degree in Theatre is a 60-semester-hour professional program with concentrations in directing, interdisciplinary digital media (in cooperation with AME), performance, performance design, and theatre for youth.

The concentration in interdisciplinary digital media trains students to become sophisticated makers, evaluators, and entrepreneurs of digital media, while providing a focused series of classes in one of the departments’s other MFA specialties: directing, performance, performance design, or theatre for youth.

The directing concentration focuses on the collaborative process necessary for new work development, emphasizing a hands-on, mentor-student approach to develop the skill, craft, and attitude required to be an excellent professional director.

The concentration in performance is focused on developing performers as creative artists. It emphasizes skills for approaching and creating new work and developing entrepreneurial performance applications in multimedia, interdisciplinary collaboration, artistic integrity, and social responsibility.

In the performance design concentration, students learn skills and methodologies to create and execute designs in costumes, lighting, and scenery and to work collaboratively with other theatre artists.

The concentration in theatre for youth is designed to prepare candidates for work as drama specialists; for college and university teaching in the field of theatre for youth; for professional careers in children’s theatre; and for work in community theatres, recreational programs, and social agencies.

Admission. Applicants must meet all admission requirements of the Division of Graduate Studies. In addition, the Department of Theatre requires a minimum of 30 semester hours of course work in theatre, a minimum GPA of 3.20 for all course work in theatre, and acceptable scores on either the GRE or MAT.

For the concentration in performance, requirements include:

1. an interview and audition, either on campus or at one of the U/RTA sites;
2. three letters of recommendation;
3. a detailed statement of purpose; and
4. a current résumé.

Dates and sites for interviews may be obtained from the Department of Theatre.

For the concentration in directing, the Department of Theatre requires a personal interview, either on campus or at one of the U/RTA sites; a statement of purpose; a current résumé, including three references of professionals familiar with your work; and a written approach to dramatic work selected by the reviewing committee.

For the concentration in performance design, three letters of recommendation are required from professionals who can speak to the applicant’s potential for success in performance design. In addition, applicants must provide a résumé and a portfolio of ten slides of their work with a return envelope and postage as well as a statement of educational and artistic objective. An interview is recommended, either on campus or at one of the U/RTA sites.

For the concentration in theatre for youth, three letters of recommendation are required from leaders in the field of theatre for youth, as well as a statement of educational and career goals. Submission of a current résumé is also necessary. An interview is strongly suggested but not required.

More detailed information regarding admission requirements for the concentration may be obtained from the Department of Theatre Web site.

Application Deadline. The first deadline for receipt of applications and test scores is February 15. After that date, admission is subject to space availability.

Program of Study. Each student works closely with a supervisory committee to develop a program of study in required and elective course work. All MFA candidates majoring in Theatre are evaluated at the end of each semester by their supervisory committee, with the responsibility resting on each student for documenting professional development. The advancement of each student through each of the three years in the MFA program is dependent upon a positive recommendation of the supervisory committee.

The program for interdisciplinary digital media concentration consists of a minimum of 60 semester hours distributed as follows: 18 hours in art, media, and engineering core courses; a minimum of nine hours in theatre research, history, and theory; an additional 18 to 26 hours of theatre requirements to complete one of the department’s other concentrations; and 12 hours of research/applied project credits.
The program of study in the directing concentration consists of 60 semester hours distributed as follows: THE 500, 504, 520; THP 401, 418, 450, 482, 483, 498, 502, 503, 506, 518, 519, 598; THP 684 Internship and THP 693 Applied Project.

The program for the performance concentration consists of a minimum of 60 semester hours, distributed as follows: THE 500, 504, 520; THP 450, 482, 483, 498, 501, 502, 503, 504, 507, 519, 598; THE 684 (Internship) and THP 693 (Applied Project).

The program for theatre for youth consists of 60 semester hours, distributed as follows: 36 hours of required course work in the major (THE 500, 504, 520, 524; THP 411, 498, 503, and 611 or 618, six hours each of THP 684 Internship and THP 693 Applied Project); and 24 hours of approved electives in the major and related areas.

Credit Before Admission. Subject to approval by the supervisory committee, a maximum of 24 semester hours of graduate work from a completed master’s degree program earned at ASU or another accredited institution may be applied to the program of study. In other cases, a maximum of nine semester hours of nondegree graduate work from ASU or another institution may be applied (see “College of Law Credit,” page 67). All course work for the degree must be completed within the six-year time limit.

Foreign Language Requirements. None.

Final Examinations. A comprehensive examination or comprehensive review in the area of concentration is required. In addition, students failing to receive a grade of “B” (3.00) or higher in THE 504 and 520 must pass a written comprehensive examination on the subject matter of those courses. THP 693 Applied Project must be supported by written documentation and defended in an oral defense.

Deficiencies. Deficiencies in undergraduate preparation of no more than 12 hours may be removed while pursuing the MFA degree; courses taken to remove deficiencies may not be counted toward the degree.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The PhD degree is designed to give students a broad knowledge of theatre as well as special research, production, and teaching skills in theatre for youth or theatre and performance of the Americas. A detailed description of each program may be obtained from the Department of Theatre Web site at herbergercollege.asu.edu/theatre.

See “Doctor of Philosophy,” page 69, for general requirements.

Application and Admission. Applicants must meet all admission requirements of the Division of Graduate Studies. In addition, the Department of Theatre requires acceptable scores on the GRE and on the Test of English as a Foreign Language or equivalent (where applicable); three letters of recommendation; a current résumé; a scholarly writing sample; and a statement of purpose.

Application Deadline. The first deadline for receipt of applications and test scores is February 15. After that date admission is subject to space availability.

Program of Study. A total of 60 semester hours after completing the master’s degree is required for both programs. The concentration in theatre for youth requires a core of 30 hours, distributed over the following courses: THE 505, 524, 700, 791, and THP 411, 503, and 611; 24 hours in research and dissertation preparation; and six hours of Research Technique (two graduate-level courses in qualitative or quantitative research methods, approved by the supervisory committee; or successful examination in a foreign language approved by the committee).

The concentration in theatre and performance of the Americas consists of a core of 24 hours, distributed over the following courses: THE 500, 505, 591, 691, 700, 791, and THP 783; 12 hours of electives, two of which must come from outside the theatre department (as approved by the supervisory committee); and 24 hours of research and dissertation preparation.

In meeting these requirements, students, with the advice of the supervisory committee, may select theatre courses in areas such as theatre education, directing, acting, design, playwriting, theatre history, and theatre theory/criticism, in addition to tutorial courses. Students may also take courses outside the theatre department in areas such as pertinent research methodologies, critical and cultural studies, area studies, languages and literatures, educational theory and methodology, aesthetic theory, the arts and arts education, and children’s literature. Students are encouraged to be involved in on- and off-campus production, teaching, and research. All activities are selected to help students meet the goals of the program and develop the capability of becoming leaders in the field.

Preliminary Reviews. Reviews of a student’s performance in courses and development of research skills, artistic skills, and teaching competencies are conducted by the supervisory committee at the end of each semester.

Comprehensive Examinations. These examinations are composed of written and oral components centering on theatre history; literature, and criticism; theatre for youth and theatre education; theatre and performance of the Americas; and the research area.

Dissertation Requirements. A dissertation based on original research work of high quality, demonstrating proficiency in the student’s special field, is required. (See “Doctoral Dissertations,” page 68.)
Financial Assistance. University scholarships, fellowships, grants, and other forms of financial assistance are available. See “Financing Graduate Studies,” page 54, and “Assistantships and Associateships,” page 65. Graduate assistantships are granted by the Department of Theatre; information concerning graduate assistantships are available through the graduate secretary, Department of Theatre.

RESEARCH ACTIVITY

The Department of Theatre’s doctoral concentrations in theatre and performance of the Americas and in theatre for youth provide unique opportunities for students to advance knowledge in their respective fields. The department’s affiliation with the Hemispheric Institute for Performance and Politics in the Americas supports student and faculty participation in and travel to the institute’s regular international conferences; offers concurrent graduate courses developed by member universities; provides access to its extensive digital archives on cultural performances ranging from theatre and dance to ritual and religious practice and political events; and provides an important site for students to publish their research.
