GRADUATE PROGRAMS

The college offers the Master of Education (MEd) degree in four areas:

- Educational Administration and Supervision
- Elementary Education
- Secondary Education
- Special Education

SPECIAL ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

- Postbaccalaureate Teacher Certification in Elementary Education
- Postbaccalaureate Teacher Certification in Secondary Education
- Postbaccalaureate Teacher Certification in Special Education

Nature of the Programs. The College of Teacher Education and Leadership offers the MEd degree in four program areas: Educational Administration and Supervision, Elementary Education, Secondary Education, and Special Education. In addition to master’s degree course work, the Educational Administration and Supervision program also offers courses which meet the state certification requirements for supervision, principalship, and superintendency.

The faculty of the college also offer course work that meets the personal and professional development needs of west Valley teachers. For specific information about the four graduate programs in Education, visit FAB S220, or call 602/543-3634.

Admission Requirements. Individuals pursuing any of the MEd programs must apply to Graduate Studies at West campus and to the specific program area to which they seek admission. Admission to a degree program is based on undergraduate and/or graduate GPAs. Also considered are letters of recommendation, personal statements, work and academic experiences, and the availability of faculty to supervise academic areas of interest. Applicants to the elementary or secondary programs must hold valid Arizona teaching certificates for those grade levels. Admission to graduate programs is selective. Meeting minimum requirements does not ensure admittance to the program.
Graduation/Exit Requirements. Candidates for the MEd degree are required to complete a comprehensive exam unless their program requires an applied project or its equivalent.
