PURPOSE

The college prepares tomorrow’s educators to teach in ever-changing settings through commitment to high standards of innovative teaching, broad-based scholarship, and quality service to the university and the community.

The College of Teacher Education and Leadership balances academic concepts with current research and practices, accompanied by prompt exposure to the classroom environment. This integration of theory with practical experience strengthens future teachers’ abilities to refine their instruction skills continually.

Programs in the College of Teacher Education and Leadership offer flexible scheduling and small classes. The college prepares students to be leaders in the field of education.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Graduate degree programs, as shown in the “College of Teacher Education and Leadership Graduate Degrees and Majors” table, page 439, are offered by the faculty in the Department of Graduate Studies and Professional Development in cooperation with faculty from the Department of Elementary Education, the Department of Secondary Education, and the Department of Special Education.

Teacher Certification. Those holding a bachelor’s degree who desire Arizona teacher certification are encouraged to apply for a Master of Education with certification concentration in elementary education, secondary education, or special education. Send e-mail to the College of Teacher Education and Leadership graduate programs at ctelgrad@asu.edu or call 602/543-3634. Those with a bachelor’s degree who wish to earn teacher certification but do not desire a master’s program may enroll as nondegree graduate students in a postbaccalaureate program. For information on this option, access the Web site at www.west.asu.edu/ctel/advising/index.htm, or call 602/543-6354.

Nature of the Programs. The College of Teacher Education and Leadership offers the MEd degree in four program areas: Elementary Education, Secondary Education, Special Education, and Educational Administration and Supervision. In addition to master’s degree course work, the Educational Administration and Supervision program also offers courses that meet the state certification requirements for supervision, principalship, and superintendency.

The faculty of the college also offer course work that meets the personal and professional development needs of local teachers. For specific information about the four master’s programs in Education, visit FAB S220, call 602/543-3634, or e-mail ctelgrad@asu.edu.

Admission Requirements. Individuals pursuing any of the MEd programs must apply to the ASU Division of Graduate Studies and to the specific program and concentration to which they seek admission. Admission to a degree program is based on undergraduate and/or graduate GPAs. Also considered are letters of recommendation, personal statements, work and academic experiences, and the availability of faculty to supervise academic areas of interest. Applicants to the elementary or secondary programs must hold valid Arizona teaching certificates for those grade levels unless they are pursuing an MEd with certification. Admission to graduate programs is selective. Meeting minimum requirements does not ensure admittance to the program.

Graduation/Exit Requirements. Candidates for the MEd degree are required to complete a comprehensive exam unless their program requires an applied project or its equivalent.

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN SPECIAL EDUCATION

For the MEd in Special Education students must complete 12 semester hours of core courses and one of the following concentrations:

Collaboration and Consultation (General)

The general special education program is designed to provide practicing teachers with the knowledge base and skills needed to develop and provide the most current instructional methods and materials for their students. The program emphasizes practical classroom applications based on the latest theory, research, and best current practice. The program emphasizes collaboration and consultation, and is designed with the assistance of a faculty advisor to meet the needs of a student’s professional and career goals.

Infants and Young Children. The infants and young children concentration is designed to prepare individuals to work with children birth to five years old, including those with disabilities and developmental vulnerabilities.

Certification. The certification concentration is designed for those with bachelor’s degrees who wish to earn both the MEd degree and Arizona State Cross-Categorical Special Education Certification K–12.

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION

Students in the Master of Education in Educational Administration and Supervision program complete core requirements (9 semester hours), program requirements (6 semester hours), and concentration requirements (21 to 30 semester hours). Concentrations include

1. principalship, intended for those desiring Arizona State certification as school principals;
2. supervision, intended for teacher leaders desiring state certification for supervisory positions; and
3. superintendency, intended for those desiring state certification as school superintendents.

A fourth concentration in educational entrepreneurship is in the development stages.

Students typically complete MEd programs in two years, enrolling in two courses per semester plus summer sessions. Classes normally meet one night per week.

Applications are to be submitted online at www.asu.edu/gradapp.

Completed applications are reviewed commencing mid-February. Cohorts are normally formed by mid-April. Non-credit predoctoral workshops are available in the summer before courses commence.

The Doctoral Program Admission Committee assesses each applicant’s application package holistically; those individuals selected have demonstrated innovative professional leadership and have career goals consistent with the purposes of the program. Cohort members reflect diverse experiences, perspectives, and are balanced between the two program concentrations.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The EdD consists of a minimum of 60 semester hours beyond a master’s degree. Up to nine semester hours may be transferred in or recognized for advanced standing applicable to the research core or advanced professional studies only. The program requirements include:

1. professional core (12 semester hours),
2. research core (nine semester hours),
3. advanced professional studies (21 semester hours),
4. directed field-based studies (six semester hours),
5. participation in LSC (three semester hours),
6. comprehensive examination, and
7. EID (nine semester hours).

Progress through the program requires maintaining satisfactory grades (a 3.25 overall GPA and a “B” [3.00] or higher in each course), passing written and/or oral comprehensive examinations, participating in an LSC and field-based studies, and completing and defending an EID.

Course Requirements

Professional Core (12 Hours). The professional core consists of courses that promote knowledge and facilitate informed practice and innovation in classrooms, schools, educational agencies, and allied organizations. Advanced practice of leadership and innovation requires an in-depth understanding of a common core of concepts within the profession.

Research Core (Nine Hours). The research core develops students’ knowledge, competencies, and skills applicable to disciplined inquiry, including qualitative and quantitative research methods, action research, program evaluation, and the development and synthesis of information. These resources are applied to analyzing problems, suggesting solutions, and investigating and assessing the impact of innovations in teaching, learning, and leadership on individuals, organizations, and society. After completing an overview Strategies for Inquiry course, students select two courses from either the quantitative area or the qualitative area that are consistent with their research interests, philosophy of inquiry, and the EID they are developing.

Advanced Professional Studies (21 Hours). Advanced professional studies includes courses in one of two concentrations: leadership in policy and administration or leadership of teaching innovation. These series of related courses are intended to provide a firm grounding in the respective specializations. Of the 21 hours required, a minimum of nine and maximum of 12 hours must be taken from the College of Teacher Education and Leadership while a minimum of nine and maximum of 12 are to be taken from other colleges of the university. All courses are to be selected in consultation with the doctoral program or concentration advisor.

Leader Scholar Communities (Three Hours). LSCs serve as thematic seminars and forums for doctoral students until they advance to the EID. LSCs connect to Field-Based Studies and themes generated by other courses to address community-based problems using a variety of strategies for inquiry. Both face-to-face and online communication and collaboration are used.

Directed Field-Based Studies (Six Hours). Directed field-based studies are projects in schools, classrooms, agencies, and other sites focusing on in-service or intervention initiatives or interaction with educational, corporate, political, legal, health, and social leaders. Their purpose is to test and develop skills in communication, observation, persuasion, analysis, and documentation.

Comprehensive Examination

The comprehensive examination assesses the doctoral student’s knowledge and skills related to the development of the EID. Students are examined on their EID proposal (including its content, rationale, implementation plan, and evaluation plan) and the student’s knowledge and understanding of the Professional Core, Research Core, and Advanced Professional Studies areas. Their ability to present and defend their EID successfully demonstrates students’ readiness to proceed to the final phase of the program.

Educational Innovation Dissertation (EID)

The EID is an applied project that addresses, in part or in whole, a major challenge faced by education at the local, district, state, national, or international level. The EID includes a comprehensive review and synthesis of relevant literature; a proposed change, intervention, or research question; a research design that includes the collection of data, scheme of analysis, and framework for assessing the effect of the proposed project; an analysis of data collected; a presentation of results and conclusions; and a discussion of the implications of findings for policy, practice, and research. The public defense of the dissertation consists of an oral presentation of the EID followed by questions from committee members.

BILINGUAL/BICULTURAL EDUCATION (BLE)

For more BLE courses, see the “Course Prefixes” table, or access www.asu.edu/aad/catalogs/courses. The campus designation—D (Downtown Phoenix), E (Polytechnic), M (Tempe), or W (West)—may affect how courses may be used to fulfill requirements.
